5. Reports

a. Board Reports

- i. There were no Board reports to report.

b. Principal/A.D Report

- i. Mr. McCain spoke about a Sped performance sheet from the 18-19 school year. He explained how they were rated for our school. He also talked to the Board about having the 10th graders test in the ACT. Testing is nearly complete within all the grades. Athletic banquet was held in Hayes Center and was a success. The Spring Music was also a success and district music contest was held in Imperial. A lot of the ratings were excellent and good. The art class went to McCook for a Paint-In and received 1st. Mr. McCain asked if the school wanted to use Strive again for next year.

c. Superintendent Report

- i. Summer Reading will be from June 1- June 21 from 8:30-11:30 am, Monday-Friday. Mr. Bejot also talked about rental rates and possibly changing them. He also spoke to the Board about a 403b opportunity. This would allow teachers and staff to use pre-tax or post-tax dollars to invest to contribute to retirement. The Yearbook staff is using the company Walsworth for Maywood Public School's yearbooks. Mr. Bejot also mentioned that he would like to re-do and update the school mission statement.
